

NOTICE*RECORDS AND PERSONAL INFORMATION

In order to protect the confidentiality of your personal information, Assumption Life is responsible for ensuring that a file is established and retained according to the applicable rules, in the offices of Assumption Life or third parties acting on our behalf, in Canada or elsewhere, in which the information pertaining to your application for insurance, as well as the information pertaining to any insurance claim, will be placed. This personal information may be medical in nature or related to your lifestyle (driving record, pursuit of a hazardous sport, criminal record, etc.). When reviewing your insurance application or assessing a claim, we, our service providers or our reinsurers may consult any insurance file that we hold or that is held by other insurers or reinsurers with respect to any other insurance application or statement you may have made in the past.

For underwriting purposes or in the event of a claim, we could retain the services of an investigator in order to conduct an investigation in regard to you. This investigation may bear on your reputation, health, finances and lifestyle. In the course of this investigation, family members, friends and neighbors may be questioned about you.

We may also, for medical underwriting purposes, seek the assistance of a physician or a paramedical organization or a clinic in order to have you undergo a medical examination, X-rays, an electrocardiogram or to collect a blood, urine or saliva sample. The analysis will be used to determine the existence of various abnormalities such as diabetes, hepatic, kidney or liver disorder, bone disease, immune disorder, infections caused by the AIDS virus, and the presence of medication, drugs, nicotine or their metabolites and to determine cholesterol and blood lipid levels.

In the event of a claim, we may require a copy of your medical records. We may also require, in the event of a death claim, a copy of the police investigation report, coroner's report, or any other report that provides relevant information explaining the circumstances of your death.

When reviewing your insurance application or for underwriting purposes, your personal and medical information may be disclosed to your insurance agent if this information is necessary for the performance of the agent's duties. Only those employees or agents (including any reinsurer, health care professional or service provider) who need the personal information for the performance of their duties will have access to your file. If necessary, your personal information, including your medical information, may also be shared with your beneficiaries or personal representative in relation to a claim for a death benefit.

Your personal information may be securely used, stored or accessed in other countries and may be subject to the laws of those countries. We may have to disclose your personal information in response to a request from government authorities or a court order in these countries.

Assumption Life shall not communicate your personal information to a third party without your consent unless required to do so by law or ordered to do so by a court.
