Conversion

- The FlexOptions policy may be converted to a permanent life insurance policy offered by Assumption Life for this conversion privilege, without proof of insurability, for the sum insured according to the decreasing sum insured table on the date the conversion privilege is exercised.
- A joint FlexOptions policy may be converted to a joint permanent life insurance policy for the sum insured according to the decreasing sum insured table on the date the conversion privilege is exercised or to two individual permanent life insurance policies. In this last case, half the sum insured according to the decreasing sum insured table on the date the conversion privilege is exercised will be applied to each new individual policy.
- The conversion privilege is available from the first policy anniversary.
- The conversion privilege terminates on the first of the following dates:
 - 5 years before the expiry date of the policy.
 - On the policy anniversary nearest the insured's 70th birthday. For a joint policy, both insureds must meet this requirement.

Riders

The following benefits can be added as riders to the FlexOptions policy and must be issued at the same time.

- Critical Illness (CI)
- Disability income (Based on loans)
- Disability income (Based on employment income)
